Important Testimony in Reed Smoot Case Puts Mormons in Bad Light.

APOSTLES RULED PEOPLE

Could Not Run for Public Office Without Their Approval-Unprintable Testimony.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Mirch 16.—One of the most interesting and Important features of the investigation of Senator Reed Smoot's case before the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections was brought out to-day in the testimony of E. B. Critchlow, formerly an assistant United States attorney in Utah, who told the story of the Moses Thateber tepisode.

United States attorney in Utah, who told the story of the Moses Thatcher episode.

According to his version, which was borne out by official records, Apostle Thatcher persisted in continuing as a cardidate for the United States Senate against the wishes of a quorum of the apostles, and on that account was held to be "not in harmony with his quorum." The history of the campaign he made against the wishes of his fellow-Mormons, of his defeat and his subsequent trial before a commission of church officials was given in detail, and in the end that submission to the will of the church was read and put in the record of the Smoot investigation. This recantation showed Thatcher totally broken in spirit and 'sowing absolutely to the mandiates of the church in that the consent of an officers' quorum must be obtained in order that he may continue in good standing. The purpose of the testimony was to show that it was necessary, according to the rules of the church, for Reed Smoot to have obtained the could have become a candidate for the Senate.

The president of the church, said this witness, appointed the president of the stakes, some fifty-three in number. The bishops could not act ontil their appointment was approved by the president of the church.

Mr. Jansen said that aside from Sait Lake, Weaver and Summit countles, the Mormons were in the majority in all the counties of Utah.

At the executive session of the committee at noon certain proceedings from the divorce case of Apostic Teasdale were put into the record as evidence. The admissions made in that case were offered by the prosecution to combat the testimony of President Joseph F. Smith that Teasdale was married to Lillias Hook for eternity only, and that she was not considered as Teasdale's wife when he contracted the marriage with Marian Scholes. The divorce decree set aside the marriage. The records and testimony in the case and the decree set aside the marriage. The records of Mormons for unlawful living, saying, "Prosecutions were inaugurated with vigor, and many men and some women went into hidnes. Over one thousand men were convicted and sentenced, if I remember rightly."

Mr. Critchlow said an opportunity was given by the courts to the persons convicted to escape jail service by promising that ir, the future they would obey the law, but that the chance of escaping punishment was not accepted generally. In fact but three persons complied with the ruling of the court.

The Ant and the Sugar Lump

R. BARBER, is your business a little shy? Is the little fellow around the corner beating you out at every jump? If so, there must be something wrong. Why not take a lump of sugar and find out just what the translate of The size and shape of a lump of sugar and find out just what the trouble is? The size and shape of the lump is immaterial just so long as it is the "real thing." Take it to a place frequented by ants and watch the result. Not many minutes will clapse before that lump of sugar will begin to "do business," and the longer you watch it the more business it will do. Ants will come from all directions and on their way they will pass many good things. Even something that looks "just as good" will be passed up like a white bean, as Mr. Ant goes for the real sweet. How does the ant know so much? Perhaps he saw the sugar advertised of perhaps some one told him about it, but he knows that the lump assays 100 percent, in fine satisfaction.

cent, in fine satisfaction.

Now, Mr. Barber, how many points of satisfaction does a customer get in your shop? How many second-rate and old-style methods do you employ? If you will substract your shortcomings and lack of up-to-datenesss from the business you ought to do, you will find that you have about all the customers you are entitled of the various methods and articles that might improve your shop we will mention but one, but that one is a winner. It is an antiseptic scalp remedy, called Nowlro's Herpicide, and people take to it like ants take to sugar, It is the control of t take to it like ants take to sugar. It is "the original remedy that kills the dandruft germ," and by far, the most exquisite of the high-class hair dressings, thoroughly antiseptic, it tenches prophylaxis and suggests cleanlinoss. As a

In conclusion: Be honest with your customers, Mr. Barber, and let all your rules work both ways. After you have passed two shoe stores to buy your favorite make of footwar at a certain rules work both ways. After you have passed two shoe stores to buy your favorite make of footwear at a certain store because you can get what you want without question, do not go back to your slop, and while standing in those same new shoes, tell a customer that you have something "just as good" as Herpicide. He may doubt your intentions and he may have personal views on the subject that will land him in another barber shop next time. The above story appeared in a recent issue of The Barber's Journal

Mr. Critchiow said there was a disposition in the Legislature of 1895 to send all legislation to the Mormon Church to see if it were proper to enact it. In relation to the Moses Thatcher incident, Mr. Critchiow said a latter had been sent out which had to Thatcher incident, Mr. Critchlow said a letter had been sent out, which had the purpose of dividing the people as equally as possible between Republicans and Democrats and maintain a reserve which could be swung either way in the interest of the church. The church afterward denied this letter, said Mr. Critchlow, but Moses Thatcher continued working in the the fall of 1896 carried on an active cam-paign for election to the United States Senate; by the succeeding Legislature. Mr. Critchlow said it was well know that the apostles were working against Thatcher, and their object was to provent a direct blow at the principle that the quorum of apostles could control the action of one of their members. The Mormons, he said, were responsible for the election of Mr. Rawlins, "Thatcher's effort to secure the election against the wishes of the church," said Mr. Critchlow, "was the subject of sermons in the church in which Thatcher was charged with being out of harmony with his quorum and not obeying the will of the president and apostles in regard to teaching politics.

College Professor Dismissed.

The Grove Avenue quartette has made, under the able tutelage of the organist, Mr. Manly B. Ramos, a reputation for its ine singing that any four singers could be proud of, and there is no doubt that the above four singers will accomplish much in further enhancing the reputation of Grove Avenue, and its musle-loving-pastor, Dr. J. B. Hartherne, for all that is beautiful and uplifting in sacred harmony. The contraite, Miss Oglivie, has been heard in both secular and sacred musle, and its one of the foremost pupils of Mrs. William H. McGehee, She is ambitious, artistic and has the advantage of youthful enthusiasm and a charming personelle.

Mr. William H. Boschen, the tener, has of youthful enthusiasm and a charming personello.

Mr. William H. Boschen, the tenor, has done fine work under his most talented father-in-law, Professor Jacob Reinhardt. His yolee is a pure tenor, of even quality and extensive range, and biends beautifully in quartetic work, as well as most attractive and finished in sole work.

Mr. Clarance D. Wilkes the basso, in his boyhood was popular in choir circles here, but has only recently returned from St. Louls, where for years he had most superior advantages, under the best vocal teachers, in developing a rich baritione voice, His association there for so many years in its most exclusive musical atmosphere fits him for well filling the difficult task of balancing a quartetic of well-trained voices.

The misle of Grove Avenue Church is entrusted to a committee composed of William J. Ready, Esq., chairman; John Garland Follard, Esq., and Mr. Eugene Robinson.

EXHORTER

Reads Inflammatory Type-Written Address and Is Promptly Arrested.

(By Associated Press.)
SPRINGFIELD, O., March 10.—The nce disturbances which have terrorized the town for the last three days as a sult of the murder of Patroiman Collis, and the subsequent lynching of the ne gro Dixon, who shot Collis, are held well in check by the thirteen companies of State millita, and, the authorities are of the opinion at 9 o'clock to-night that no more troops will be needed to control the situation.

Both Chief-of-Police O'Brien and Sheriff Routzain believe, however, that it would be a mistake to materially decrease the number of troops now on hand. There are unmistakeble signs that there is an ugly feeling on the part of the men and the boys who have composed the moiso of the last three days and the authorities realize that the shooting of either a white man or negro, or even a street fight between men of opposite races, would be suffiledent to start the mob again on a killing and burning expedition.

This evening the police arrested a negro claiming Chicinnati as his home, and giving Y. W. Smith as his name. He was accompanied by several strange negroes and wherever they could gain an audience of one or more negroes on the street, they read a highly inflammatory typewritten paper, urging the negroes to avenge the lynching of Dixon and to apply the torch to the white business and residence districts in retaliation for the burning of the negro quarters on the levee.

NATIVE NEGROES QUIET.

The police, however, do not fear trouble from the native negro, as this portion of the colored population has been prompt all day to keep the police in touch with any signs of an uprising on the part of strange negroes.

In the opinion of City Solicitor Tatum, neither the city nor county can be held responsible for the burning of the levee district by the mob. It is an admitted fact, that while public sentiment is against the means employed to put the negro out of the way, there is universal rejoicing that he is dead and it is realized that it will be extremely difficult to secure a jury that will assess more than nominal damages, if any at all. While a special grand jury will sit Monday to investigate the lynching, it is thought that it will be impossible to indict ether the leaders of the mob, which did the lynching or the subsequent burning.

An immense throng of people was in and a mon made no reference to the way in which Collis met his death.

PENSACOLA, FLA., March 10.—The combined fleet was augmented by the arrival to-day of the cruisers Atlanta and Nashville and the gunboat Bancroft, which came from Gunnlanamo, joining the vessels here off the coast, South Atlantic and North Atlantic fleets, making a total of thirteen war vessels of various types now in port, and at target practice off Santa Rosa Island.

The Newark, Detroit and Montgomery have been engaged during to-day in practice with their large calibre guns, several hundred shots being fired. Statements coming from the vessels are to the effect that the records being made are very satisfactory. Those vessels will conclude their practice in the morning, and the new battleship Maine will go out for work.

Involving Valley Schedule. The State Corporation Commission will next week have two hearings before itone on the 17th, in which the Norfolk and Portsmouth Belt Line Railroad Company is the defendant, and the other on the 18th, in which the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, the Southern Railway and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad will appear.

On Thursday the 17th, the company to the state of the st

Ohio Railway, the Southern Railway and the Bailmore and Ohlo Railroad will appear.

On Thursday, the 17th, the case against the Norfolk and Portsmouth Belt Line Railroad Company will be given a formal hearing before the commission. This case was brought to the attention of the commission by complaints lodged by the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Norfolk and various shippers along the line of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Belt Line Railroad, which compilaints were caused by the issuing of a circular by that road, in which it was announced that the charge for weighing cars, on consignees or shippers' individual track scales, would be increased from fifteen to fifty cents per car. Shippers located on this road also make compilaint against the requirement of the road that shippers shall indemnify said road against loss of equipment by fire while standing on their private sidings. Both sides will be be given every opportunity on next Thursday to be fully heard on the two questions at issue, and the commission will hand down an opinion in the case shortly after the hearing is completed.

The second case of the week will be heard on Friday, the 18th, and this will be more in the nature of a conference than a formal hearing, and will be held with the object of having the three roads concerned—the Chesapeake and Ohlo, the Southern and the Baltimore and Ohlo-readjust their passenger schedules in the Valley of Virginia so as to better suit the demands and convenience of the people living along these railroads.
